MCGRAW WENTWORTH WELCOMES CHRIS BECK AS ACCOUNT DIRECTOR

Troy, Michigan – November 7, 2013... McGraw Wentworth, a Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC company, recently appointed Christopher Beck as an account director for the Troy, Mich., firm. In his new position, Beck will optimize processes and products to best manage his clients' group benefit programs effectively and cost efficiently.

Prior to joining McGraw Wentworth, Beck was an agent with MFC Benefits for three years, providing mid-size employers with insurance, retirement and benefits administration insight and services. He also has extensive carrier experience, working with GE Capital/Genworth, ING and then Principal Financial over a period of ten years. In each of these roles, Beck was responsible for assessing the needs of an organization and developing viable financial/operational strategies and solutions to meet those needs.

As an account director at McGraw Wentworth, Beck will work closely with his team to provide strategic benefits planning for clients, while also evaluating plan alternatives, developing employee communications, and ensuring compliance with health care reform and other key regulatory constructs.

“Chris understands the group benefits needs and challenges of mid-size employers. With his ability to partner with and identify unique solutions for each client, Chris is a good fit for our service-oriented team,” shared Thomas P. McGraw, president, McGraw Wentworth, a Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC company.

Beck received his Bachelor of Arts degree in marketing from Michigan State University and is pursuing his Masters in Business Administration from Walsh College.
